

Cadillac Jack Announces Rollout of New Wide Area Progressive – Cadillac Cash™

Progressive Features Instant Cash Payouts, Multiple Game Themes and $250K Average Jackpots!

DULUTH, GA, Nov 10, 2006 – Cadillac Jack, a leading provider of electronic games to the global gaming market, announced the rollout of its new Wide Area Progressive, Cadillac Cash. The new progressive features instant cash payouts, multiple game themes linked to a common progressive, and expected average jackpots of $250,000.

Cadillac Cash is currently operating in four casinos in Washington State as a Class II Wide Area Progressive. “Developing our Wide Area Progressive demonstrates Cadillac Jack’s commitment to our customers and players by creating games that offer players more excitement and larger jackpots, and provides our customers with higher revenues,” commented Mike Macke, Chief Executive Officer of Cadillac Jack. “We are very pleased with the strong interest and play that Cadillac Cash is already receiving during the rollout phase in Washington and are eager to introduce it into new markets with the expectation that players, both domestic and international, will be drawn to its great features.”

Cadillac Jack is teaming with the Puyallup Tribe, a long standing customer, to host the Wide Area Progressive. “Cadillac Jack has been a friend to the tribe since 1999 when they introduced Wildball Bingo to the gaming industry,” stated Herman Dillon, Tribal Chairman of the Puyallups. “We are delighted to host the Cadillac Cash Wide Area Progressive because Cadillac Jack has quality products which are the best playing and most profitable games in the market. We are already experiencing a high demand for the progressive, as players are responding enthusiastically to the entire presentation of the brilliant display sign, popular game titles and growing jackpot.”

Cadillac Jack is already a top provider in electronic games and systems for the Class II market with many of the games regarded as top performers. The new Cadillac Cash Wide Area Progressive is
