*New Game Library from Cadillac Jack a Big Hit at G2E
Now Featured at Oklahoma Indian Gaming Association Tradeshow and Conference*

Cadillac Jack Takes Orders for Over 2000 Machines at G2E 2005 Show

DULUTH, GA, October 3, 2005 - Following a successful showing at the Global Gaming Expo (G2E) in Las Vegas where the company took orders for more than 2000 player terminals, Cadillac Jack now features its new game library at the Oklahoma Indian Gaming Association Tradeshow and Conference in Tulsa October 2-4.

Promoted as the "New Face of Gaming," Cadillac Jack showcased more than 20 new titles at the 2005 G2E tradeshow and conference. Both domestic and international operators were drawn to the new games which featured the latest innovations in graphics, sound, bonus rounds and downloadable technology. The 'fast play' games include exciting random bonus rounds that give players a sense of involvement in the outcome. New customers such as Remington Park and existing customers Firelake Casino in Oklahoma, and Poarch Creek in Alabama, snapped up new game titles which include Dr. StrangeLuck, Bikini Bay, Top Speed, Old Glory Deluxe and Rock Paper Scissors.

Rocky Barrett, chairman of Citizen Potawatami, plans to add Cadillac Jack games to the property's expanded location, "If you went to the Global Gaming Exposition two weeks ago and missed Cadillac Jack's new games, you missed the show. We are buying their new games for our property under construction east of Oklahoma City. We believe our customers will find them exciting and entertaining. From an operator's perspective, the great new bonus features will provide us with an opportunity to 'keep them in their seats.' In short, they will be a plus for us, and a plus for the player."

The rapidly expanding Mexican market also took note of Cadillac Jack's innovative new Bingo games, placing orders for over 700 player terminals. The company's strong foothold in various Latin American countries, including Brazil and Bolivia, allows it to easily leverage and adapt its games for the emerging Mexican market.

"We are delighted to bring our expanded offerings to Oklahoma, a tremendously important market for Cadillac Jack. Our gaming platform and extensive library received the absolute highest form of validation at G2E from our customers and potential customers - orders for new games. With Cadillac Jack titles already performing well in the Oklahoma market, OIGA 2005 offers us an opportunity to provide this market with more than ever before," noted Mike Macke, chief executive officer of Cadillac Jack.
