

Cadillac Jack Names Gaming Industry Veteran Gordon Dickie as Sr. Vice President of Business Development and Government Affairs

DULUTH, GA. October 5, 2006 - Cadillac Jack, a leading provider of electronic games to the global gaming market, announced today the appointment of Gordon Dickie as its new Senior Vice President of Business Development and Government Affairs. Mr. Dickie will direct Cadillac Jack's pre-licensing investigations for new gaming jurisdictions, as well as develop the company's future gaming interests around the world. Mr. Dickie is also responsible for the company's Compliance Department.

"Gordon's impressive accomplishments in the areas of licensing, investigation, compliance and casino operations make him a tremendous asset to Cadillac Jack," remarked Greg Gronau, President. "Gordon's leadership and experience will help take Cadillac Jack into new markets and other gaming interests. His background handling special investigations for the Nevada Gaming Control Board and involvement with government affairs will lend itself well to Cadillac Jack's future endeavors."

Mr. Dickie brings an extensive gaming background to Cadillac Jack. Prior to joining the company, he served as Vice President of Compliance and Government Affairs at Shuffle Master, Inc., where he oversaw the Compliance Licensing and Technical Compliance departments. In this role he worked with gaming regulators, lobbyists, and testing labs in numerous gaming jurisdictions. Mr. Dickie also served as Executive Director of Cabazon Gaming Commission where he oversaw all Commission accounting and internal control policies and procedures, NIGC regulations, state compact requirements and commission rules.

"I look forward to working with the executive management team to grow Cadillac Jack into a first class gaming company," remarked Gordon Dickie. "The company's technological strength with server-based downloadable games and the reputation of its management team makes Cadillac Jack well positioned. The future looks very bright for Cadillac Jack.”
